I mentioned on the call this afternoon that the standing committee review period had lapsed as of Thursday, May 12. The committees did not take any action. They had 30 days. I'll send you another email on the senate committee review for rule package 4 and then two messages regarding standing committee referrals for rule package 3. When the JCRAR committee receives the rule, I'll send another email.

Again, since no action was taken by the legislative standing committees, I believe the next step for both rule packages 3 and 4 is referral to the JCRAR (Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules) legislative committees.

We are committed to service excellence.
